

WHY WORK IN CHILD NUTRITION PROGRAMS?

Do you enjoy working with a team of dedicated people?

Child nutrition professionals work together in a fast-paced environment. The child nutrition team is part of a community effort to provide children opportunities to learn and succeed.

Is family and free time during evenings and weekends important to you?

Work hours for child nutrition professionals are similar to school schedules, with evenings, weekends and holidays off. Some staff even have time off during summer months when school is not in session.

Are you looking to give back to your community and help children build for their futures?

Child nutrition professionals support the health and development of the next generation with nutrition education and healthy meals.

Does a smile from a child make your day?

Child nutrition professionals provide that extra bit of nurturing for their student customers that can make a real difference in a child's life.

Are you searching for a job with possibility for advancement through on-the-job training?

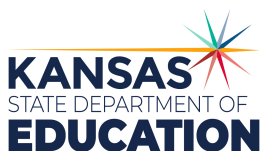

Child nutrition professionals have opportunities to learn and advance through job training and certificate programs.

Do you enjoy preparing good food?

Food prepared for school children meet high standards for quality, safety and nutrition. Child nutrition professionals develop culinary skills on the job and through summer training opportunities.

Child nutrition professionals feed children; it is rewarding every day.

For more information about school food service employment opportunities, contact your local school district or local food service director.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.